

"

“Decisiveness” (1 day)

LeadingLeaders LLC

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND	PROGRAM OVERVIEW
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To be a more effective leader and co-worker, we can all learn how to be more decisive and thereby assured that we are leading and working with confidence and efficiency</li> </ul>	Many high achievers consistently claim that they should've made their decisions – especially the tough ones – sooner. They waited too long. It wasn't because they didn't have enough of or the right information, it was because they held back. They hesitated. They doubted themselves and, sometimes, their organizations.
WHO SHOULD ATTEND	This very interactive, one-day seminar will inform and challenge you to first examine your decision-making habits and then explore how you can inspire and motivate, or demoralize and hold back, your team by being or not being decisive. It is yet another powerful differentiator for aspiring and highly successful leaders and employees. In this seminar, you will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Explore “Why am I so indecisive?”</li> <li>Answer “Do I trust myself, do I trust others, and do others trust me?”</li> <li>Study The Imposter Syndrome</li> <li>Examine ways to make a decision</li> <li>Check your self-esteem and confidence</li> <li>Commit to a roadmap for decision success</li> <li>Examine “17 Quotes of Decisiveness”</li> </ul> Leadership is a great responsibility that requires constant practice and development in any organization by its leaders and employees – especially in making decisions!
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Executives and senior managers who need to improve the way they make effective and timely decisions</li> <li>Middle managers who need to give better and more definitive guidance to their employees while executing the mission</li> <li>Any professional who understands that the ability to make a decision is often the difference in seizing an opportunity or letting it get away</li> </ul>
INSTRUCTOR BIOGRAPHY:
Rear Admiral Michael Giorgione (Ret.) served for 29 years in the Navy's Civil Engineer Corps and retired in 2010. He served in leadership positions around the world and held four commands during his career, including the unique assignment as Commanding Officer at the Presidential Retreat at Camp David and his final command as Commander, Naval Facilities Engineering Command, Pacific and U.S. Pacific Fleet Civil Engineer. After four years in the private sector, he moved full time to devote his time and energy to leadership development and executive coaching through LeadingLeaders. His clients include small and large companies, the Department of the Navy and he also guest lectures at several prominent universities. In October 2017, he successfully published his first book: Inside Camp David: The Private World of the Presidential Retreat. Mike is a 1981 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, with a B.S. degree in Ocean Engineering and an M.S. degree in Civil Engineering from Penn State. He is an honor graduate from the Defense Language Institute and also holds executive business certificates from the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University and the Kenan-Flagler School of Business at UNC Chapel Hill. He is a registered engineer in Pennsylvania and an SAME Fellow.
COURSE POINT OF CONTACT	Michael A. Giorgione, mike@leadingleaders.org, 619-495-7983